Living the Gospel by comforting the bereaved.

Feeling very depressed, Theresa attended a walk-in counselling clinic provided by Catholic Family Services of Simcoe County. During the session, Theresa said her symptoms started ten years ago after the tragic loss of several family members. The clinician helped her understand how grief was still impacting her. Together they developed a plan to provide her with additional services. At the end of the session, Theresa felt for the first time she could get through her depression. ShareLife-funded agencies are helping people like Theresa find happiness again.

Please give generously. If writing a cheque, please issue to OLMM, reference Sharelife.

4th SUNDAY OF LENT

The fourth Sunday of Lent is sometimes called Laetare Sunday. Laetare is a Latin word that means "rejoice." Even as we observe our Lenten sacrifices, we rejoice in anticipation of the joy that will be ours at Easter.

In John's Gospel reflection, we find an observation about human sinfulness. Jesus is the light that has come into the world, but people preferred the darkness. We wish to keep our sins hidden, even from God. Jesus has come into the world to reveal our sins so that they may be forgiven. This is the Good News; it is the reason for our rejoicing in this season of Lent and throughout our lives.

The Gospel, John 3:14-21, takes us to the final part of Jesus' dialogue with Nicodemus—though at this point Nicodemus and his questions have largely fallen from view and Jesus is reflecting more widely upon his own mission from the Father. The "lifting up" of the Son of Finding themselves in the wilderness, without proper food or water, the Israelites have begun to grumble against the Lord and against Moses, and in consequence are punished with a plague of deadly snakes. But God who sent the punishment has also, in response to the prayer of Moses, sent the remedy: the erection of a bronze figure of the snake in question. When the Israelites looked upon this figure it acted as a life-giving antidote to the poison. The Gospel passage takes this incident, where the Israelites found salvation and life by directly confronting what was afflicting them, as a type of the coming "lifting up" of the Son of Man upon the cross. Those who will "look upon" the Crucified One with the eyes of faith, seeing him there there as "the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world" will find eternal life.
