d. A detailed agenda had been distributed to members by Paula Petersen. Changes had been made and a revised agenda will be distributed. Certain requirements were outlined such as ensuring that the young performers will be put to the beginning of the program to ensure that they will not be too tired. Each program should not be too long. The program will begin prior to dinner being served and then again during breaks. Performances will take place on stage to ensure enough seating on the floor. A final agenda will be distributed upon all input from each participant.

e. Speakers: Felix Sebanc wrote something that will talk about when the original parishioners came, why they started going to Christ the King Parish, and how they started having Slovenian masses. He will also talk about how the land was purchased and the church began.

Stane Kranjc – will talk about how the Scouts was started.

History of the parish's Catholic's Women's League to be determined (can be Mrs. Ferkul, Mrs, Oserdkar or Rozi Nesich).

Father Zrnec – Was here for the blessing of the church. Hopefully he will say something.

Anthem to be sung before.

Ambassador Kunstelj and Cardinal Rode will also say something.

We can ask the Cardinal to present an acknowledgement of the 50th Anniversary.

The program will then continue with older dance groups, choirs, etc. It was discussed that all the choirs join in together for a last song prior to the close of the program (different song titles were discussed with Tio Maria being the overall favourite to be sung).

f. Food and drinks will be provided for the performers in the small hall, however everyone will be kept upstairs until their assigned program time. Paula and Mojca will take care of the children.

g. A picture of all the speakers can be taken after the program for the church yearbook.

h. Leaders of the performers should ensure that the performers are close to the front of the stage otherwise they will not be appropriately heard or seen. They should be right up to the microphones or their voices will be lost.

i. Groups should be told to come for 6:30.

j. Domobransi mass – mass is for all people who have come here, built this place, for all who are a part of the history. This mass just happens to coincide with the same weekend as our anniversary.

k. The event will be advertised on the Slovenian radio program with a separate request for baked goods as well. Everyone is asked to ask their group members to help and bring some baked goods.

l. Anyone interested in wearing their nosas for the weekend are encouraged to do so. This is also the case for the masses on the Sunday.

m. The slide show, a pictorial history of the church, will be shown during the meal.

n. There will be a few photographers to take pictures. Boris Ulcar will be asked to take pictures as well as some other volunteers.

o. Rozi Nesich and Milan Vincec will be the emcees.

p. Sr. Veronica will take care of flowers for the church and hall.

q. Mrs. Kecmar has offered to make a cake.

r. Prayer cards will be handed out (Miraculous Medal cards).

s. Tables will be set up Friday evening. No chair covers. Cook needs to know numbers by the Wednesday before.

t. Signage, advertising the 50th Anniversary, will go up that week. Milan Vincec has taken care of this.

u. Each group should provide any and all information about their performances so that the emcee can properly announce each performance.

v. Under the direction of Rozi Nesich, the CWL will prepare everything in the hall for Sunday.
