Resp.: My Mouth will tell, O Lord, of your deeds of salvation.

EDINI NA,, IN, da se prežene mráz v med...loveških odnosih, v obnašanju in govorjenju v družbi, je ogrevanje nesebi..ne ljubezni. Kristjani ne smemo pustiti, da nas osvoji splošni cinizem. Srce pozna tudi svoje argumente. Prednost argumentov srca je, da so prepri...ljivi, da osvajajo in spreminjajo. Spremeniti in ogreti ..lovekovo srce pa je med najtežjimi nalogami kristjana. Slomšek je jasno poudarjal, da se moramo sami goret, ..e ho...emo vnemati druge!

CHRISTIAN LOVE is not to be confused with sentimentality or mere good fellowship, nor with that somewhat questionable zeal to help others in order to convince ourselves of our superiority. Rather, it means living in peace with our neighbour, venerating the image of God that is found in each and every man, and doing all we can to get all others in their turn to contemplate that image, so that they too may learn how to turn to Christ. Our Lord gave a new and incomparably deeper meaning to love for our neighbour. He established it as the New Commandment and as the sign by which Christians will be known. Divine love, as I have loved you, is the measure of the love we must have for other people; it is, therefore, a supernatural love which God himself places in our hearts. At the same time it is a deeply human love, which is enriched and strengthened by grace. The charity of a Christian usually finds itself expressed in virtues needed for living in harmony with others; in good manners and courtesy, for example, which are then elevated to a higher and definitive order.
