FRIDERIC BARAGA

was born on June 29, 1797 in the castle of Mala vas in the Northwestern part of Slovenia. By the time he was nine years old, he was fluent in the Slovenian, French and German languages. Orphaned at 14, Baraga went on to study law at the University of Vienna and graduated with high honors. Frederic Baraga sought the advice of St. Clement Hofbauer, then living in Vienna, and was greatly moved by this charismatic man. Baraga's decision to study for the priesthood, work for religious reform in his own diocese, work with the Indian missions in America, and write prayer books can all be traced to Hofbauer's influence. Father Baraga arrived in the New World on December 31, 1830. For the next 37 years he travelled the length and breadth of the Great Lakes area to minister to the Ottawa and Chippewa Indians. During the summer months, Father Baraga traveled on foot and by canoe. During the winter months, he traveled on snowshoes thus giving him the titles of "Apostle of the Lakelands" and "Snowshoe Priest." He wrote seven Slovenian prayerbooks and authored 20 Native American books which includes his monumental "Grammar and Dictionary of the Chippewa Language," still in use today. Collection envelopes are in your weekly donation boxes. Donations of $25. or more will receive 3 Baraga Bulletins throughout the year.

O God, I adore you with all my heart. I thank you for the life and holiness of your servant, Bishop Baraga. In imitation of your Son he poured himself out in your service, bringing your merciful love and saving Gospel to the peoples of the Great Lakes. Through his union with you in powerful intercession, please grant the favor I beseech you, (name intention) so that your glory may be manifested and we shall praise you forever, through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

TEDEN MOLITVE ZA EDINOST 2023

»Naučite se delati dobro, skrbite za pravico« (Iz 1,17) Letošnji teden molitve za edinost nas spominja na to, da ekumenizem ni samo molitev za ta veliki cilj, ampak nujno vključuje tudi konkretno sodelovanje med kristjani različnih skupnosti in cerkva.

Cerkveni dokumenti naštevajo naslednja področja: pravičnost in mir, krepitev družinskega življenja, spoštovanje manjšinskih skupnosti, ohranjanje stvarstva, sprava med narodi in skupnostmi. Vsaka razdeljenost ima svoje korenine v grehu. Tudi rasizem je sestavina greha, ki je razdelil kristjane med seboj. Zato ima molitev, zlasti molitev za edinost, vedno večji pomen, ko poteka znotraj boja proti vsemu, kar nas deli kot ljudi, ki smo ustvarjeni po Božji podobi in zato deležni enakega dostojanstva.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

18th to 25th of January 2023. Praying together for Christian unity allows us to reflect on what unites us and to commit ourselves to confront oppression and division amongst humanity. The theme for 2023 is "Do Good; Seek Justice." (cf. Isaiah 1:17).

To attain full communion among Christians, the first thing needed is prayer, closely united to that of Christ: I do not pray for these only, but also for those who believe in me through their word, that they may be one even as we are one. I in them and thou in me, that they may become perfectly one. "We cannot 'bring about' unity by our powers alone. We can only obtain unity," said Benedict XVI, "as a gift of the Holy Spirit. Consequently, spiritual ecumenism—prayer, conversion and the sanctification of life—constitutes the heart of the meeting and of the ecumenical movement."

As we seek greater unity, may it be in service to the love and justice God has revealed in Jesus.
